

Tennessee Immigrant & Minority Business Group (TIMBG)

Invites you to attend the second TIMBG meeting hosted by

Mr. Quincy McKnight of WorldPay Bain Capital

“How do you reduce your payment processing fees in your business?”

Tuesday October 22, 2013 6:30–8:00 PM

Nashville City Club

Service Source Building, 20th floor

201 4th Ave north, Nashville 37211

Parking available in the service source building below, validated on for NCC.
Additional parking in the 4th Ave parking garage across from Subway. ($10.00)
Light food/snacks will be served. Cash bar will be open.

Admission: free

Attire: jacket and tie

Please RSVP to christin@wangvisioninstitute.com

Co-founded in 2013 by Dr. Ming Wang, MD, PhD and Professor Galen Hull, PhD, TIMBG promotes communication and interaction among immigrant and minority business owners, through a monthly seminar to enable immigrant business owners to market their services and products as well as to conduct discussion of topics of general interest. Membership of TIMBG is open to BOTH immigrants and minority businesses and those who are interested in interacting with immigrants and minority businesses.

Quincy J. McKnight

Quincy McKnight is an Executive Client Manager for WorldPay/Bain Capital, having joined the firm in winter 2013. At WorldPay he brings more than 13 years of debt/equity financing and servicing leadership, business development, entrepreneurial expertise and executive management experience.

McKnight has had more than 15 years in Commercial Financing and Venture Capital expertise, beginning with Premier Group Capital, the company he formed in 2006, where he served as Founder and Broker. After selling his portfolio in 2011, he served as the Business Development Officer for PNC Financial Services in Franklin, TN, until winter 2012. During the transition McKnight created LGI Technology, LLC - a device and innovations company focused on creative medical devices for future generations. His first patented device will be in production in 2014.

Since Premier Group Capital, which later became Premier Dominion Financial, McKnight's leadership and vision have provided the framework for the growth of WorldPay to a position of national prominence, reaching over $50 million in sales within 8 months and over $5 million in small business funding. WorldPay is the leading provider of secure global payment services, operating in over 40 countries and enabling business owners to accept payments anywhere, anytime.

McKnight completed graduate certificates at Cornell University and attended Middle Tennessee State University and Lipscomb University. McKnight also is the Founder and Managing Partner of SpringBoard Financial, Inc and a member of Bethel World Outreach. His favorite book is The Power of Vision by Dr. Myles Munroe and he is currently reading The Five People You Meet In Heaven by Mitch Albom.

McKnight is a founding member of the Tennessee Immigrant and Minority Business Group (TIMBG).